

Beta Alpha Psi Annual Meeting

Friday, July 31, 10:15 – 11:30 am

Katherine Acuff, National Campus Recruiting Lead, BDO USA, LLP

Speaker Bio:

Katherine Acuff, National Campus Recruiting Lead at BDO, exemplifies the “People First” value, fostering an inclusive environment. She holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Valdosta State University and a master's in public administration from the University of Georgia.

Katherine's top interview tip is to practice sharing accomplishments using the STAR method—structuring responses around Situation, Task, Action, and Result.

In her free time, Katherine enjoys traveling, cooking, and reading, savoring new experiences and opportunities to learn. Her favorite food is the versatile potato. To her, thriving means learning and sharing knowledge, and she values BDO's supportive culture that encourages everyone to reach their potential.

Delivery Method: Group Live

Title: Ace the Interview

This presentation aims to equip candidates with the skills and knowledge necessary to participate in behavioral interviews. The session will delve into the STAR (Situation, Task, Action, Result) method, providing practical guidance on providing detailed and meaningful responses. Participants will learn to identify key behavioral indicators that align with organizational values and job requirements, ensuring a match between candidate capabilities and company culture.

Learning Objectives:

1. Understand the principles and benefits of behavioral interviewing in assessing candidate competencies.
2. Learn how to effectively implement the STAR (Situation, Task, Action, Result) method to provide detailed responses.
3. Identify key behavioral indicators that align with organizational values and job requirements.
4. Develop skills to implement responses using structured behavioral interview techniques.
