August 1, 2026, 11:30 am – 12:30 pm

Kayur Patel, PwC New Zealand

Speaker Bio

Kayur Patel is a Director in PwC New Zealand's Generative AI team and one of the leading experts in helping businesses adopt democratised Generative AI. He advises Boards and Executive Teams on AI strategy, governance, and high-value use case deployment, and helps organisations to design, govern, and scale AI solutions responsibly.

Delivery Method: Group Live

Title: How Gen AI Is Disrupting Accounting, Finance and Technology – A Practical Guide

In this session, Kayur will show how Generative AI is impacting the accounting, finance and technology industries by showing real solutions he has built for his firm and for his clients. Kayur will also lead a session to help everyone learn how to make their Gen AI outputs sound exactly like them.

Learning Objectives:

1. Understand the fundamentals of Generative AI, including what it is and how it works.
2. Recognise how Gen AI is being applied across accounting, finance, and broader business functions.
3. Identify practical steps for getting started with Gen AI tools in a business context.
4. Learn the basics of prompt engineering to improve the quality and relevance of Gen AI outputs.
5. Understand key considerations for using Gen AI ethically and responsibly in professional environments.
