

Beta Alpha Psi Annual Meeting

Friday, July 31, 1:00-2:15 pm

Amy Baker, CPA, Assurance Senior Manager & Industry Senior Analyst

RSM US LLP

Speaker Bio:

Amy has over 15 years of audit and accounting experience, all with RSM. Her real estate experience includes joint ventures, portfolio companies, developers and real estate management, spanning commercial, residential and senior living sectors. Amy's experience includes GAAP basis audits, fair value audits, income tax basis audits and reviews, and consolidations. She has participated in the manager rotation program for RSM's assurance standards and methodology group, where she developed training materials and contributed to the creation of numerous national firm training standards. As an audit senior manager, Amy supports clients through financial statement audit and attestation services, accounting for mergers and acquisitions, planning and managing audit engagements, and technical accounting research. Her work with senior living clients includes navigating complex ownership structures, regulatory compliance and specialized reporting requirements.

Additionally, Amy served as the culture, diversity and inclusion champion for the RSM Baltimore office and the inclusion, diversity, equity and advocacy board of directors for CREWBaltimore. Amy earned a Bachelor of Science, accounting, magna cum laude, from Salisbury University.

Bella Barbino, Audit Associate

Delivery Method: Group Live

Title: From Internship to Full-Time: Building a Career Through Relationships, Networking, and Professional Growth

Session Description:

This presentation explores the transition from college student and intern to full-time professional in audit, with a focus on the real estate industry. We will discuss how building meaningful relationships and maintaining a strong professional network helped create opportunities for internships and full-time employment, while also highlighting the technical and professional skills developed along the way.

Additionally, we will share how involvement in Beta Alpha Psi provided valuable opportunities for networking, volunteer service, leadership development, and professional growth. These experiences helped bridge the gap between the classroom and the workplace, demonstrating the lasting impact of relationships and active involvement on career success.

Learning Objectives:

Upon completing this session, participants will be able to:

1. Understand the importance of professional relationships and networking in supporting personal and career development.

2. Identify key experiences and skills that contribute to a successful transition from student to professional.
3. Recognize how involvement in student and professional organizations can enhance career readiness, leadership, and professional growth.
